BEACHMASTER

Although it appears chaotic, the Fur Seal colony of Cape Cross in South West Africa is highly organised. Survival captures every detail of the seal family life from mating to birth and play, including riding the surf and performing underwater acrobatics.

Filmed by Tony & Liz Bomford, G. Dieter Plage, Cindy Buxton.
Produced by Colin Willock.

THE HEAVYWEIGHTS

If there was a prize for the most selfish, brutal and evil-tempered race of animals, the Northern Elephant Seal would be among the first to be nominated. Two ton breeding bulls fight savagely for the right mate, and only one or two can succeed. The females are subservient to the master bull, and the pups suffer appaling mortality in the first months of life.

Filmed by Rod and Moira Borland.
Produced by Colin Willock.

PEOPLE OF THE SEA

Over one hundred thousand seals bob up and down in the breakers of the Atlantic surf. Survival tells the story of the seals of the wild shores of the outer Hebrides.

Filmed by Tony & Liz Bomford.
Produced by Colin Willock.
